Private Journeys in Switzerland

Tailor-Made Private Tours & Custom Experiences from Zurich

Discover Switzerland your way with a journey designed exclusively for you.

Our Private Journeys in Switzerland are created for families, friends, couples, small groups, companies, and guests celebrating special occasions who are looking for a truly personalized travel experience.

Unlike our scheduled group tours, every private journey is designed exclusively for your group. Whether you dream of exploring the majestic Swiss Alps, charming mountain villages, crystal-clear lakes, historic cities, cultural landmarks, or nearby European destinations, we work closely with you to create an itinerary that reflects your interests, travel style, pace, and preferences.

Most private journeys are designed as one-day or two-day experiences, with destinations throughout Switzerland and selected nearby European regions. Longer itineraries can also be arranged upon request.

When submitting your request, you may select your preferred travel date. Please note that your selected date is considered a booking request only and does not constitute a confirmed reservation. We will review availability and contact you to discuss your itinerary before confirming your journey.

To begin planning your personalized experience, an Initial Journey Planning Fee of CHF 99 per group is required. This planning fee allows us to review your request, discuss your travel ideas, research destinations, design your customized itinerary, and reserve dedicated planning time for your journey.

Please note that the CHF 99 Journey Planning Fee does not guarantee your requested travel date. Your booking will be confirmed only after availability has been reviewed and mutually agreed upon by both parties. If your requested date is unavailable and no suitable alternative can be arranged, your CHF 99 Journey Planning Fee will be refunded in full.

Once your private journey is confirmed, the CHF 99 Journey Planning Fee will be fully credited toward the final cost of your journey.
